RECITALS

WHEREAS, the City is a political subdivision of the State;

WHEREAS, the OPD is a political subdivision of the State of Louisiana and established in compliance with Louisiana Revised Statutes, Title 15, Sections 146 et seq., which provides criminal defense representation to indigent persons accused of committing crimes in Orleans Parish, Louisiana, which principal address is located at 2601 Tulane Avenue, Suite 700, New Orleans, LA 70119;

WHEREAS, pursuant to Article 7, Section 14(C) of the Louisiana Constitution of 1974, and related statutes, and Section 9-314 of the Home Rule Charter of the City of New Orleans, the City may enter into cooperative endeavors with the State of Louisiana, its political subdivisions and corporations, the United States and its agencies, and any public or private corporation, association, or individual with regard to cooperative financing and other economic development activities, the procurement and development of immovable property, joint planning and implementation of public works, the joint use of facilities, joint research and program implementation activities, joint funding initiatives, and other similar activities in support of public education, community development, housing rehabilitation, economic growth, and other public purposes;

WHEREAS, the City of New Orleans is the recipient of a grant from the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation (the “Grant”) to participate in the Safety and Justice Challenge (the “SJC”), Phase II, the goal of which is to reduce the use of local incarceration by reducing the flow of individuals into jail, shortening lengths of stay in jail, and diminishing racial and ethnic disparities in jail populations without compromising public safety by focusing arrest and release decisions on risk and not financial ability; diverting people with mental health and substance abuse problems toward community-based services; increasing resources at the first appearances including defense advocacy for pretrial arrestees; and improving coordination among all agencies and at all decision points;

WHEREAS, the U.S. Supreme Court in Rothgery v Gillespie County, Texas, 554 US 191 (2008) stated “that the right to counsel guaranteed by the Sixth Amendment applies at first appearance before a judge at which a defendant is told of the formal accusations against him and restrictions are imposed on his liberty;”

WHEREAS, research has shown judges are more likely to release defendants on their own recognizance and are more likely to reduce bonds to an attainable amount when defense counsel is present at first appearance;

WHEREAS, research has shown that for every person given a lawyer at first appearance, 10 bed days may be saved due to earlier release from jail;

WHEREAS, research has shown that defense counsel must be prepared to provide zealous representation and to do so, must be appointed sufficiently in advance of the first bail hearing and given opportunity to verify essential information;

WHEREAS, OPD employs attorneys and client advocates who may interview defendants prior to or at first appearance and prior to bond review hearings to gather information necessary to mounting an argument for release on recognizance or an attainable bail;

WHEREAS, research has shown that lower risk individuals, as scored by risk assessment tools, are neither a flight risk nor threat to public safety and analysis conducted by the City has shown that only 47 percent of lower risk felony defendants are released from the Orleans parish jail within three days of arrest;

WHEREAS, the City and the OPD desire to accomplish a valuable public purpose of reducing the use of local incarceration as part of the Safety and Justice Challenge;

WHEREAS, the OPD will employ two new attorneys and one new client advocate who will be dedicated to providing release advocacy to indigent defendants at first appearances and through case acceptance; and

WHEREAS, the City will provide funds to OPD for the purposes of hiring the two new attorneys and one new client advocate.
